

RMS Titanic

On the 10th April 1912, RMS Titanic left _____ (Southampton/Dover) at 11.45am on her maiden voyage to _____ (Sydney/New York). After picking up more passengers at Cherbourg (France) and Queenstown (Ireland), Titanic headed out across the _____ (Atlantic/Pacific) Ocean. However, on the 15th April 1912, Titanic sank with a loss of over 1,500 passengers and crew.

Titanic was built in _____ (Belfast/Glasgow), for the White Star Line company. She took three years to finish. Titanic was the _____ (smallest/largest) ship in the world at that time and it was said that she was practically _____ (sinkable/unsinkable). Passengers hoping to experience her luxury included: millionaires, silent movie stars, teachers and families hoping to start a new life in _____ (Australia/America).

Titanic had been making good speed, but on Sunday 14th April, Captain Edward Smith decided to change course after hearing reports about _____ (ice/rocks) in the water. That night the sea was calm and flat; the sky was clear but moonless. At 11.40pm a lookout spotted an _____ (island/iceberg) ahead and sounded the alarm. Forty seconds later, Titanic struck the iceberg, which tore a hole in her _____ (funnel/hull). At around 2.20am, on the 15th April, Titanic disappeared below the water where she was to lie undiscovered until 1985.

RMS Titanic

On the 10th April 1912, RMS Titanic left Southampton (Southampton/Dover) at 11.45am on her maiden voyage to New York (Sydney/New York). After picking up more passengers at Cherbourg (France) and Queenstown (Ireland), Titanic headed out across the Atlantic (Atlantic/Pacific) Ocean. However, on the 15th April 1912, Titanic sank with a loss of over 1,500 passengers and crew.

Titanic was built in Belfast (Belfast/Glasgow), for the White Star Line company. She took three years to finish. Titanic was the largest (smallest/largest) ship in the world at that time and it was said that she was practically unsinkable (sinkable/unsinkable). Passengers hoping to experience her luxury included: millionaires, silent movie stars, teachers and families hoping to start a new life in America (Australia/America).

Titanic had been making good speed, but on Sunday 14th April, Captain Edward Smith decided to change course after hearing reports about ice (ice/rocks) in the water. That night the sea was calm and flat; the sky was clear but moonless. At 11.40pm a lookout spotted an iceberg (island/iceberg) ahead and sounded the alarm. Forty seconds later, Titanic struck the iceberg, which tore a hole in her hull (funnel/hull). At around 2.20am, on the 15th April, Titanic disappeared below the water where she was to lie undiscovered until 1985.

classroomsecrets.com

Cloze Activity – Titanic – Beginner ANSWERS Like this? Find more Titanic resources here.