

RMS Titanic

On the 10th April 1912, RMS Titanic left _____ at 11.45am on her maiden voyage to _____. After picking up more _____ at Cherbourg (France) and Queenstown (Ireland), Titanic headed out across the _____ Ocean. However, on the 15th April 1912, Titanic sank with a loss of over 1,500 passengers and crew.

Titanic was built in _____, for the White Star Line company. She took _____ years to complete.

Titanic was the _____ ship in the world at that time and it was said that she was practically _____.

Passengers hoping to experience her _____ included: millionaires, silent movie stars, teachers and families hoping to start a new life in _____.

Titanic had been making good speed, but on Sunday 14th April, Captain Edward Smith decided to change _____ after hearing reports about _____ in the water. That night the sea was calm and flat; the sky was clear but moonless. At 11.40pm a _____ spotted an _____ ahead and sounded the _____. Forty seconds later, Titanic struck the iceberg, which tore a hole in her _____. At around 2.20am, on the 15th April, Titanic disappeared below the water. Only seven hundred and five people were rescued from lifeboats by the _____ RMS Carpathia, which had responded to her mayday message. Titanic was to lie _____ at the bottom of the ocean until 1985.

course	passengers	liner	Southampton	ice	alarm
Belfast	America	lookout	unsinkable	three	undiscovered
iceberg	New York	largest	Atlantic	hull	luxury

classroomsecrets.com

Cloze Activity – Titanic – Brainbox

Like this? Find more Titanic resources here.

RMS Titanic

On the 10th April 1912, RMS Titanic left Southampton at 11.45am on her maiden voyage to New York. After picking up more passengers at Cherbourg (France) and Queenstown (Ireland), Titanic headed out across the Atlantic Ocean. However, on the 15th April 1912, Titanic sank with a loss of over 1,500 passengers and crew.

Titanic was built in Belfast, for the White Star Line company. She took three years to complete. Titanic was the largest ship in the world at that time and it was said that she was practically unsinkable. Passengers hoping to experience her luxury included: millionaires, silent movie stars, teachers and families hoping to start a new life in America.

Titanic had been making good speed, but on Sunday 14th April, Captain Edward Smith decided to change course after hearing reports about ice in the water. That night the sea was calm and flat; the sky was clear but moonless. At 11.40pm a lookout spotted an iceberg ahead and sounded the alarm. Forty seconds later, Titanic struck the iceberg, which tore a hole in her hull. At around 2.20am, on the 15th April, Titanic disappeared below the water. Only seven hundred and five people were rescued from lifeboats by the liner RMS Carpathia, which had responded to her mayday message. Titanic was to lie undiscovered at the bottom of the ocean until 1985.

course	passengers	liner	Southampton	ice	alarm
Belfast	America	lookout	unsinkable	three	undiscovered
iceberg	New York	largest	Atlantic	hull	luxury

classroomsecrets.com

Cloze Activity – Titanic – Brainbox ANSWERS Like this? Find more Titanic resources here.